

ZEPPELIN ARRIVES IN UNITED STATES

SILVER JUBILEE PUMPKIN SHOW STARTS WEDNESDAY

CIRCLEVILLE
IN READINESS
FOR FESTIVALExceptional Program of Free
Acts Booked—Record
Displays Indicated.

With enthusiasm waxing warm whenever a group of persons meet, the 1928 edition of the Circleville Pumpkin Show is ready for presentation Wednesday night. This is the 25th annual and Silver Jubilee Pumpkin Show.

Farmers are shining up their prize fruits and feeding their cattle the best of feeds while their wives are sure their chickens, ducks and butter are the best in the county. Such has been the case for the past 25 years. In the towns the residents are certain their fancy work, cakes and candies will be just a little better than the other fellow's best.

The object of this big show, the largest in Pickaway-co. and one of the best attended shows in the state, is for the purpose of entertaining and promoting a more friendly relationship with the patrons and visitors of the community; to further promote and extend agricultural pursuit, and to award premiums for the display of grain, vegetables, livestock, poultry, articles of domestic industry, public school displays, general agricultural and household manufacturing interests of Pickaway-co.

OFFICERS IN CHARGE

Directors will be in charge of each department of the displays and these directors appoint exhibitors to handle and arrange the exhibits as in former years.

The directors of the show and their chairmen are as follows: Department one, T. F. Jeffries, director; soliciting, T. O. Gilliland, chairman; lighting, C. T. Gilmore; locating concessions and manufacturing displays, E. C. Fricke and W. H. Warner.

Department two, J. D. Hummel, director; swine display, Harry J. Briggs; poultry, Bryce Briggs.

Department three, Harvey J. Sawyer, director; corn, I. S. Carpenter; pumpkins, squashes and fruit vegetables, R. L. Brehmer; fruit, James Swearingen; vegetable display, Fred B. Brunner; small grain, J. Monroe Morris.

Department four, Senet Cryder, director; bread display, Edward Wittich; cake display, D. E. Phillips; and Mrs. F. M. Picken; butter, Barrere & Nickerson; jellies and canned goods, H. B. Colwell, candies, Henry Joseph.

Department five, Boys' and Girls' club work, M. C. Warren, director.

Department six, F. R. Nicholas, director; fancy work display, Mrs. E. S. Stephens, Mrs. H. L. Valentine and Mrs. F. H. Palm; Mrs. O. H. Heffner and Mrs. E. Sullivan, assistants; flower display, Mrs. Noah Weaver.

STUNT AIRPLANE TO ARRIVE THURSDAY

D. D. Dowden, received word Monday morning that Fred Davis, operations manager of the Columbus Flying Service, Norton Field, will arrive Thursday morning with a Monocoupe for display in the auto section and a Waco 10 for stunt flying and passenger service.

Pilot Davis will operate from a field south of the city, on the Scioto Trail. The instructor will take passengers in one of the most modern planes on the market. Tickets for rides are being sold by D. D. Dowden and John Courtright.

MEANS BUSINESS

COLUMBUS, Oct. 15.—J. O. Emer, of Columbus, appeared today for protection from a regular who left a threatening letter after ransacking the Kremer store and failing to find anything valuable.

The note warned that unless Emer placed a sum of money in a certain place at a certain time, he or his son would be killed.

George Haswell Fathered Annual Pumpkin Show

(BY ANNA SHEA)
This year Circleville is celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Pumpkin Show which owes its origin to the active imagination of the late George R. Haswell, former mayor of the city. Mr. Haswell was also superintendent of the local water company at the time with his office in the room now occupied by the Circleville Produce Co., on W. Main-st.

At that time many of the citizens of this thriving little city were using water obtained from wells driven in their door-yards, and the duties pertaining to the superintendency of the water company were not so strenuous as now and as a consequence Mr. Haswell had much time to give to the thought of the betterment of his city of which he held the guiding lines.

CITIZENS CONSULTED
Mr. Haswell had returned from a visit with relatives in Indiana where he had seen a show somewhat similar to the local Pumpkin Show being put on but on a much smaller scale. As the county fair for Pickaway-co. had been abandoned some years previous, he could not see why a show of this kind would not be a good thing for Circleville.

This matter was brought before citizens as they met in the Pickard drug store and later was talked over with the city fathers after a council meeting. It was brought to the attention of them that Circleville was in need of something to bring the occupants of the farms of the county to their county seat in addition to their annual pilgrimage for the purpose of paying their taxes. It was also made known to them that if something was not done Circleville could blame itself if the money that was made off the fertile fields of Pickaway-co. would be spent in neighboring counties as Fairfield was still drawing large attendance to their annual Lancaster fair. Washington C. H.

also had its annual Fayette-co. fair and as neither of these cities depended upon the farmers' trade as much as Circleville it was very imperative that this city make the subject of coming to Circleville a pleasant one for its farmer friends.

THREE ON COMMITTEE
After much preparation the first show was held and Mr. Haswell did much of the planning and made many of the preparations himself. He also acted as secretary, which is one of the hardest jobs connected with the show. Serving on this committee with Mr. Haswell were Joseph G. Wilder and the late German Joseph.

At first the Pumpkin Show was not a very pretentious affair but at that time the automobile was not so extensively used as now and neither those who lived in Circleville nor those who lived on the Pickaway farms found fault with it. From the very first the show was a thorough success and the same committee acted as the directors for seven years. However, these men were given the assistance of practically every business man in the city as after the first or second year they were all anxious for its continuation.

After Circleville had proven the benefits of the show, several neighboring cities copied the idea but none of them have had the signal success that has always been given to the Pumpkin Show.

1918 IS SKIPPED.
During the World War, when the hearts of many were in turmoil and the heroic sons of Old Pickaway were far from familiar haunts, many lying in unmarked graves in Flanders Field, many in foreign army hospitals, and many more in front line trenches and scattered over Europe, all in the service of their country, Circleville desisted from its annual show. Neither the merchants nor the citizens were in a mood for entertainment. Every year from 1918 to page two, please)

HUGE CRAFT
PASSES OVER
WASHINGTON

Landing At Lakehurst Expected To Be Accomplished Without Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The dirigible Graf Zeppelin radioed the navy department today that she will pass over Washington, Philadelphia and Baltimore on the way to Lakehurst and will arrive there at 4 p.m.

The message said: "Graf Zeppelin crossed coast line six miles north of Cape Charles at 10:10. Will proceed Lakehurst via Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore arriving Lakehurst 4 p.m." This message was relayed to the navy department from the naval radio at Lakehurst.

The Zeppelin in its latest message requested permission to fly over Washington about 12 o'clock, the navy announced after receipt of the message.

PASSES COAST LINE

LAKEHURST, Oct. 15.—The Graf Zeppelin passed over American territory today, the goal of her long journey from Germany almost achieved.

The giant airship crossed the coast line at 10:10 a.m. after having been sighted 15 minutes before from Cape Charles.

Air station officials estimated that on the basis of her forenoon's progress she could reach Lakehurst between 2 and 3 p.m. and they were making their plans accordingly. There was a possibility however, that the big craft would "swing over New York if she arrived in this vicinity so early. She had previously reported that she would probably land at about sunset.

The air station here received a message about 11 a.m. from the commandant of the Philadelphia navy yard, saying the Zeppelin had passed Hog Island at 10:15 and Bethany beach at 10:50.

WEATHER IS FINE
It was announced subsequently that the Graf Zeppelin turned west northwest at Hog Island and Bethany beach.

The weather was fair and the wind light. As matters stood shortly before noon, it appeared that the Zeppelin would have a good landing, and that she could be "walked" into the hangar by the ground crew of 300 men assigned to seize her and maneuver her. If a wind unexpectedly developed she could be attached to the mooring mast.

One naval expert, closely following the ship's progress, with an up-to-the-minute chart, said that if the airship pursued the course adopted early this morning, it would reach Washington first.

It was conjectured that Dr. Eckener might thus pay his compliments to the capital before being formally received in New York after his Lakehurst arrival. Moreover, Washington reports indicated the craft intended to follow the line, Washington-Baltimore-Philadelphia to Lakehurst.

ICE CREAM CONE IS GIVEN AUTO VICTIM

Something new in the line of prescriptions was given out Saturday night by Dr. D. G. Sheets, of Williamsport, to the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schleich, who reside about a mile and a half north of Williamsport.

The child was crossing a street in Williamsport about 9 p.m. Saturday when she was struck by an auto and thrown to the curb. The driver speeded up his car and escaped. The child was carried into the office of Dr. Sheets and he gave her an ice cream cone which cured most of her injuries at once, the doctor said.

GET $15 FROM SAFE

Entering through a rear window thieves sometime Saturday night or Sunday broke the combination of the safe of Rader and Son coal office, S. Pickaway-st. and obtained about $15.

TWO DIE IN WRECK

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15.—Two negroes were killed and eight more injured when a car in which the ten were riding turned over near here yesterday. The dead are Roy Hollinsworth, 32, the driver and Moses Buckner, 40.

CORN CUTTER
IS INVENTED
IN ASHVILLE

Power Machine, Which Also Shocks Stalks, Designed
By T. A. Boor.

Attention of farmers, manufacturers and inventors has been attracted by the power corn cutter and shocker which has been invented by T. A. Boor, of near Ashville, to take the place of expensive hand cutting and shocking which costs the farmer from $12 to $17 daily.

Boor has invented a power cutter and shocker, which is simple in construction and easily handled. Its design, completed after two years' labor, has been patented at Washington, D. C.

Aug. 8, Boor began actual construction of his invention, which he has named "Boor's Cornshocker." He purchased a tractor, stationed it in his backyard, and with bits of scrap iron, automobile wheels and springs, finished the new machine in less than two months' time.

FIVE MILES AN HOUR.
The new machine travels at a rate of five miles an hour and requires two men to operate it. One cycle, which is the period required to cut 194 hills for the shock, to pack it and deposit the shock on the ground and to remove the mould, occupies a period of five minutes, and with rushing the work, this can be reduced to four minutes. Allowances are made for cutting and shocking corn not only in the level ground, but also on the hillside, and with simple operation of a lever from the driver's seat, the shock can be "plumbed" to the north, east, south or west, to make the particular shock stand straight and not at right angles to a hillside.

The shock mould, standing approximately four and one-half feet high and about five feet in diameter at the base, is of pine construction, built in flexible pieces. As the corn is cut, it falls into a trough on the right side of the machine. A man stands in the open mould, and it is his duty to pack the stalks. At the "butt" end of the mould is a twofold table, approximately three feet in diameter. This keeps the stalk butts from falling together and consequently making a shock which would not stand up when released from the mould.

SHOCK IS DUMPED
When the 194 hills of corn have been cut and packed into the mould, the "packer" climbs from the mould, seals the open side of the mould and the shock is ready to be deposited upon the ground. The tractor, of course is stopped, and the driver, by pulling a lever, dumps the shock upon the ground. The shock is then tied just above the mould. The two-fold table folds together and passes through between the stalks of corn as the tractor moves on and another cycle begins.

Farmers who witnessed the first demonstration of the corn shocker, which is the first power driven corn shocker, declared the invention to be a real boon to the economical corn grower.

NORMAN RALSTON
BUYS NEWSPAPERS

Former Local Publisher To Edit Daily and Weekly at New Lexington.

Norman W. Ralston, formerly editor and general manager of The Circleville Publishing Co., has purchased two newspapers at New Lexington, the Perry County Tribune and the New Lexington Herald and Monday they were merged into a daily newspaper known as The Daily Tribune.

He will also publish a weekly. The Herald-Tribune.

Associated with Mr. Ralston will be Clark McDoyle, also of Circleville, who has purchased an interest in the newspaper.

H. J. Bierly, former publisher, will retire from the field. He is interested in oil boom developments now in progress at Crooksville, near New Lexington.

The Daily Tribune will be the only daily newspaper in Perry-co., which now has a population of over 40,000, in addition to being the only newspaper published in New Lexington, the county seat of Perry-co.

The deal was consummated Saturday afternoon.

BONE FRACTURED
IN AUTO COLLISION

Mrs. Ida Moss, 60, of Columbus, suffered a fractured collarbone Sunday morning about 8:30 o'clock when the auto in which she was riding was sideswiped by a large sedan from Columbus. The name of the driver was not learned but the license number was obtained by police. Both cars were headed south on Court-st.

The accident occurred at the railroad crossing on S. Court-st. The Ford in which Mrs. Moss was riding was driven by Nellie Moss. Mrs. Moss was thrown from the car and was only slightly hurt.

Another occupant of the car, Miss Gladys Betts, escaped unhurt.

Mrs. Moss was riding in the back seat and was thrown against the front seat. Dr. Heffner attended her.

The car was badly damaged.

DRESBACH CHURCH CELEBRATES ITS CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY

Denominational Leaders Speak
At Morning and Afternoon Sessions.

The Dresbach United Brethren church Sunday conducted service morning and afternoon, celebrating the centennial of that church. Dr. J. H. Harris, conference superintendent was in charge.

The services of the day began with the Sunday school at 9:30, followed by the worship service, in which Bishop S. R. Clippingfer, D. D. of Dayton, O., delivered a splendid sermon II Samuel 23-15.

"And David longed, and said, Oh, that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate."

The bishop said, "We have a great inheritance when we have been born and reared in a Christian home, and that we are greatly favored in having handed down to us religious zeal, and devotion to God and his church; also that it is a sad thing when a son outgrows the faith of his childhood."

BASKET DINNER SERVED
He further said, "It is a fine thing to remember the success and achievement of the past century, but for us, the glory of the past must be reflected in our lives now, and in the days to come."

The bishop said it was a privilege to stand at the same pulpit where other bishops and ministers had stood for the last 100 years. Benediction was delivered by Rev. O. M. Martin, a former pastor.

A basket dinner was served at the noon hour.

The afternoon service began at 2 o'clock, with song service led by Rev. D. S. Mills, a former pastor.

Dr. Harris spoke of the work of Miss Myrtle Metzgar, a former member of the Dresbach church, now a very faithful missionary in the Philippine Islands.

Several former pastors were introduced and spoke briefly as follows:

Rev. O. M. Martin of Cardington, O., Rev. J. R. Bowser, of Columbus, O., Rev. T. L. Haas, of Columbus, O. A number of other ministers were present.

DR. DRURY SPEAKS
Dr. S. W. Drury, the United Brethren historian, and professor in Eberkrake seminary of Dayton, O., gave a masterly address on the early history of the Dresbach church, and of the United Brethren church in this part of Ohio.

This was followed by a duet by Mrs. Davis Hampshire and Mrs. Anna Boor, of Ashville, O., after which Prof. N. E. Cornette, dean of Otterbein college gave an inspiring address on the movement that led to establishment of that school in 1847, and of the part the Dresbach church had in making possible this achievement.

Especially did he pay tribute to Jonathan Dresbach, who was elected a trustee of Otterbein university, as it was then known and was elected the first president of the board of trustees.

The congregation was honored by the presence of Mother Patrick of E. Franklin-st., Circleville, a daughter of Jonathan Dresbach.

The closing hymn was "Faith of Our Fathers."

The services of the day were closed with prayer by Dr. A. W. Drury.

LIMIT FOR ENTRIES
All entries in candy exhibit at the Pumpkin Show must be in not later than Thursday evening it was announced Monday. Entries are to be made at Joseph's store, which will be kept open until 9 p.m. in Thursday to accommodate those making entries.

FARMER IMPORTANT ASSET TO COMMUNITY, BOOSTERS ASSERT

Recognition of the farmer's value to this community is given by the local business interests in their fifth town-boosting advertisement which appears on another page of this issue.

Too often, the farmer is given credit for the good work he is doing, but thinking people realize that the farmer's existence and work are of vital importance to the progress of the community.

If it came to necessity, we could do without the manufactured comforts and conveniences of life, but we could not get along without the food which is practically all produced originally by the farmer.

It is up to the business people and the citizens of Circleville then, to encourage and support our farmers in every possible manner.

The farmers of the community are to be congratulated for their willingness to contribute their social and commercial activities here in Circleville.

The business and professional men of the town are united in their efforts to make a town of progress, town of the future, town of the country. And the citizens are lending their cooperation toward the end.

The modern farmer is very conscious of the need of education and he makes certain that his children receive good schooling. Fortunately, here in Circleville, we have excellent good schools and offer the farmer's children the very best in educational facilities.

The more that the town people and farmers can work together the more both will benefit. Let's all work in unison toward a bigger and better town that everybody in and around Circleville may enjoy happiness and more prosperous lives.

DRIVER IS INJURED
IN AUTO COLLISION

Columbus Resident Hurt In Crash of Cars Sunday At Williamsport.

John Justus, of Columbus was painfully injured Sunday about 9 a.m. when the Dodge touring car in which he was riding with his wife, son and daughter-in-law figured in a collision with that of Virgil Mossbarger in Williamsport.

Mr. Justus and relatives were enroute to the woods south of Williamsport on a nutting expedition and had just crossed the Washington-Circleville-pk. when the new Essex car of Mr. Mossbarger struck their car from the rear. The impact threw Mr. Justus against the front seat painfully injuring his right side and straining his back. He was taken to the home of Charles Garrison and Dr. Sheets was called to attend him. He was later taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Homer Drake.

Mr. Mossbarger was learning to drive and was being assisted by Fred Betts and in making the turn from the Washington-pk. a car parked in front of the Williamsport News office shut off his view of the other auto. In trying to miss it he struck a tree at the left hand side of the road which threw his car against the other machine.

The Essex was badly damaged and was taken to the garage of George H. Adkins at Atlanta for repairs but neither Mr. Mossbarger nor Mr. Betts were injured.

A wheel was torn off the Dodge car and it was taken to the Whitcomb garage for repairs.

INFANT CHILD DIES

Elmore Wesley Rout, 10-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rout of Chillicothe died Saturday morning at the home of 274 McKellars' after an illness of five weeks. The burial will be at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in St. Joseph's cemetery in Circleville.

The child's mother was formerly Miss Alice Plannix of Circleville. Besides his parents he was survived by a brother, Robert, two years old.

MISSOURI IS NEXT GOAL OF SMITH'S TOUR

Hoover Will Seek Massachusetts Support In Boston Speech Tonight.

ABOARD SMITH SPECIAL TRAIN ENROUTE TO ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 15.—After four days of heavy campaigning in the doubtful border states Governor Alfred E. Smith moved on toward Missouri today to give his personal attention to the fight there.

The governor slept through Illinois on the way to St. Louis, confident that he would swing Missouri as well as the other border states.

The old members of his party here were satisfied that he would win Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

His day's schedule takes him to Sedalia, where he will speak tomorrow night. It gave him stops at Belleville, Ill., at 10 a.m., and at St. Louis at 11 a.m. He will arrive in Sedalia at 6 p.m., tonight.

TRIBUTE TO LINCOLN
Accompanied by a group of reporters and members of his family, Governor Smith paid a visit to the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln at Hodgenville, Ky., yesterday.

In the nation's shrine the Democratic chieftain paid his homage to the great emancipator, donning his famous brown derby, he remarked to Mrs. Smith: "There is no royal road to greatness."

HOOPER SPEAKS TONIGHT
ABOARD HERBERT HOOVER'S SPECIAL TRAIN ENROUTE TO BOSTON, Oct. 15.—Herbert Hoover is enroute today on an important political mission to Massachusetts, where President Coolidge began his political career.

Appearing before thousands of voters and through his speech in Boston tonight emphasizing "prosperity," the Republican candidate will seek to increase his strength in this state which gave Coolidge an overwhelming majority in 1924, but in which Governor Alfred E. Smith this year admittedly has a large body of followers.

Hoover arose early today in his private car for one of the busiest days of his campaign. He was greeted by a Massachusetts delegation even before he entered the state, an official committee from Springfield, headed by Mayor Forcive C. Parker, boarding the train at Hartford, Conn.

GUEST OF GOVERNOR
The candidate will spend the afternoon at the home of Governor Fuller, with representatives of the Republican Service Men's League, and with state leaders.

Hoover's speech is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock Eastern Standard time, over a national radio hookup.

SHOW BOOTHS ARE BEING ERECTED

With the pounding of hammers and the roaring of motor trucks bringing shows and other articles to the Pumpkin Show Monday morning, citizens realized the show was not far off.

Booths are springing up everywhere and all exhibition stands are being built for the big show this year.

Autos parked along the curbs were moved and in a short time a booth stood in the parking space.

SILVER JUBILEE

1901 to the present year there has been an annual frolic with the exception of this year of 1918, and if the success that has marked the past efforts continues to cling to it, Circleville will have many more.

Another fact that has been a feature of the Pumpkin Show ever since its origin is that of the continuation in active service of the members of the committees from year to year. The first board of only three members acted in that capacity for seven years and there are now serving on the present executive committee some members who have equaled that time in point of service and some have surpassed it.

SEE LONG SERVICE

Earl W. Lutz relinquished his duties as a chairman and director because of arduous tasks connected with the reorganization of the Citizens Telephone Co. of which he is general manager, last year, after serving in some capacity on the committee ever since its organization in 1901.

John D. Hummel of the Hummel and Plum Insurance agency is also a member of long standing as is Fred R. Nicholas, who acted as secretary of the organization for quite a number of years. Another member of the committee who did much toward making the show a success is the late Nelson
R. Huston whose duties as secretary were relinquished only when his health failed him shortly before his death.

Thomas Krinn, present deputy county auditor, has acted as chairman of the amusement committee since its inauguration about 15 years ago and every year "Tommy" turns down hundreds of
would-be performers at the show which is practically the last open-air performance of the year in this section of the country. Probably there is no section of the show that requires as much correspondence as that of the amusement
section and "Tommy" begins booking acts and other features in his section before the bell rings for the close of the present one.

TWEEDY BROS. STAR

An act that has been a drawing card at nearly every Pumpkin Show for the past few years is the Tweedy Bros., a group of entertainers who "perform" on the violin and piano. The father and two brothers comprise the trio and they use practically every article that is handed them to draw music from their instruments. They have been known to use a rolling pin, frying pan, and even a bottle of moonshine for a bow for the violin and the music is always entertaining. These artists were recently heard in a
"Talkie" from the Pathe movie studio.

Probably one of the most attractive features of the show is the baby parade which has been an annual event for the past 12 or 15 years, and some of the prize babies at the first baby show have now grown up to be shiks and flappers. The number of premiums offered for this feature and their classifications have not changed since their origination.

The school parade is probably the most elaborate affair of the show and is held every other year.
The last parade was of such proportions that it attracted the attention of many from the cities and a moving picture was taken of it. This year's parade will in all probability surpass that of any former year as it has been the custom of the school officials to make each succeeding one just a little better.

The pumpkins of which there are thousands exhibited each year and for which the show is named,
are in charge of R. L. Brehrer, this year. Mr. Brehrer has acted as chairman of this section for the past three years. Formerly this display was held on South Court-st. and was in charge of the late W. E. Pickens, for quite a number of years.

Frederick L. Pickardt was the first chairman of the corn section and J. R. Wilson followed giving quite a number of years service, relinquishing his responsibilities within the past few years to Horvey J. Sweyer.

Thomas F. Jeffries has been the guiding star in the stellar constellation for quite a number of years and has given his time toward its betterment unstintingly.

AMAZING RESULTS OBTAINED BY USE OF NEW KONJOLA

Dayton Resident Tells How This Master Medicine Ended 30
Years of Stomach Trouble.

MR. GEORGE HOLZAPPEL
The remarkable case of Mr.
George Holzappel, 36, Liberty street, Dayton, Ohio, is a striking proof of the potency of this Kon-jola medicine. Happy in health again, Mr. Holzappel says:
"Do you wonder that I am recommending the wonderful Kon-jola to all my acquaintances, when it restored my health after 30 years of stomach trouble? During that time, I spent at least $500 seeking relief that I never found until I heard of and tried Konjola. I tried no end of treatments, went to hospitals, was X-rayed a number of times. Nothing helped. But Konjola banished all my troubles. Gone is the indigestion of 30 years; gone are the gas, bloating, vomiting and pains. My nerves are calmed, and I am gaining strength and weight rapidly. For the first time in 30 years, I can enjoy what I eat, and have a night's rest.
Wonderful! Konjola is the medicine that can perform a seeming miracle like this, and Konjola is the remedy that rescued me from more than a quarter-century of anguish and ill health."
Konjola is sold in Circleville at Mykrantz Pharmacy, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—

Colorful Pageant of Schools to Show History and Flowers of Pickaway-Co

Parade of Pupils in Costumes To Be Feature of Thursday At Show.

(BY JOHN HEISKELL)
One of the most elaborate and most beautiful features of the silver anniversary of the Pumpkin Show will be the school parade. All the teachers of the schools have shown much interest in the work under the supervision of the principals of the different schools and Superintendent J. O. Eagle-son, who is chairman of the entertainment committee. They can be highly complimented upon the work when it is revealed in the parade.

The pupils of the high school building will endeavor to portray something of the history of Circleville and the Pumpkin Show. This will be centered around three floats.

The first float will be a representation of the signing of the treaty between Dunmore and Chief Logan beneath the branches of the hugh elm tree, now called the Logan Elm. The cabin will be shown along with the tree. Members of the freshmen and sophomore classes will follow this float dressed as Indians and British Redcoats.

The second float will portray the coming of the early settlers in the covered wagon. Juniors and seniors will follow dressed as Pilgrims.

The third float will be a mammoth silver pumpkin representing the silver anniversary of the Pumpkin Show. The float will be preceded by members of the eighth grade dressed to represent pumpkins and vines.

Mr. Gephart, high school principal, is in charge of this section. The girls of the Franklin-st. school delegation under the direction of A. A. White will be chrysanthemums in colors as follows:

First grade: Violet; second, third and smaller pupils of the upper grades; pink; the larger pupils russet.

The boys of this school will represent artists.

The Franklin-st. float will represent a Japanese garden.

The High-st. school float will represent "An Old-Fashioned Garden." A picturesque well with it's moss covered bucket will be the center of attraction.

Various old-fashioned flowers will be represented by costumes. The delegation is under the direction of Miss Parks.

Walnut-st. school under Miss Stein will represent native wild flowers. The float will picture a woodland scene where bees and butterflies hover over a host of wild flowers. This will be followed by buttercups and morning glories escorted by wood elves. The third and fourth grade girls will be bluebells, daisies and brown eyed susans accompanied by boys dressed as gardeners.

Corwin building is representing 12 of the common flowers of Pickaway-co. Its float pictures a modern rock garden with a fountain, water being one of the essentials for flower production. This is under the supervision of Miss Hoffman.

This pageant is Thursday afternoon of the Pumpkin Show and will be a great success.

Out of 225 cows tested in August by the Barnesville Cow Testing association, 46 produced more than 40 pounds of fat.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CLUB WORK IS YOUTH'S AID IN LIFE PROBLEMS

Products of These Organizations Will Be on Display At Pumpkin Show.

Realizing the need of leadership in the agricultural field, the Farm Bureau has made as one of its primary projects, Boys' and Girls' Club work. Boys and Girls throughout the county are organized about various projects.

In Pickaway-co. the club projects are: Clothing, food, pig, calf, poultry and corn and exhibits of their work will be on display at the Pumpkin Show.

Club enrollments are secured in the spring near the close of the school year. Following the enrollment the club is organized selecting its own officers and adapting a code of regulations for the government of the club. The Farm Bureau then must enlist some man or woman in the community who has vision of the possibilities of this work to direct the organized group. This leadership is voluntary and the clubs are under this type of leadership throughout their project. The county agent is the county leader who works with the clubs and with their leaders, helping carry the work to a successful completion.

TRAINED FOR LIFE

Boys' and Girls' club meeting programs are conducted by the officers of the club under the supervision of their leader in very much the same manner as a farm bureau meeting, a grange meeting or a chamber of commerce meeting would be conducted by their elders.

The training that these boys and girls receive through this type of work is not only training them for graver obligations in the tomorrow but it also gives them a vision of the possibilities of a reward for doing work thoroughly. Pickaway-co. boys and girls have had the good fortune of having as leaders, men and women of a very high standard. There are 250 boys and girls enrolled in club work in Pickaway-co. this year. In the state of Ohio, there are close to 30,000 boys and girls taking part in club work.

The following clubs under the leadership designated, are operating in Pickaway-co. this year:

Magic Sewing club Walnut-twp. Mrs. J. B. Cromley, leader; Hardy Workers, Scioto Clothing club, Miss Vonna LeMay, leader; Salt-creek 4-H Clothing club, Salt-creek-twp. Miss Mildred Judy, leader; Keen Kutter Klub, Perry-twp. Mrs. Alice Conrad, leader; We Will Win, Darby Clothing club Mrs. Minnie Ridgway, leader; Jackson-twp. Clothing club, Jackson-twp. Miss Mary Shortridge, leader; Live Wire Sewing club, Deercreek and Wayne-twps. Mrs. Fred Baird, leader; Monroe Champion Sewing club, Monroe-twp. Mrs. Charles Hosler, leader; Ashville Sewing Circle, Harrison-twp. One Step Higher Food club, Monroe-twp. Beatrice Grice, leader; Mothers' Little Helpers Food club, Madison-twp. Mrs. Homer Peters, leader; Logan Elm Food club, Pickaway-twp. Mrs. B. W.

Young, leader; Atlanta Livestock and Crops club, Perry-twp. Glenn Calf and Poultry club, Muhlenberg-twp. Pearl E. Smith, leader; Jackson Pig Growers club, leader.

FOUR TEAMS LEAD IN BIG TEN BATTLES

Iowa Uncovers Gridiron Menace In Powerful Cherokee Indian Fullback.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—With their goal lines uncrossed in conference games, four powerful eleccens—Minnesota, Iowa, Ohio State, and Indiana—are swinging along out in front in the race for the 1928 championship of the Big Ten.

Four other teams of the conference, Purdue, Chicago, Northwestern, and Michigan, virtually were eliminated by defeat on Saturday. Illinois, one of the strongest of the "Big Ten" teams, and Wisconsin, conqueror of Notre Dame, play their first conference games this week.

INDIAN IS MENACE

The Minnesota Gophers (who battered the Boilermakers of Purdue on Saturday, 15 to 0, now loom as likely champions of the western conference.

Before the Gophers can be placed in front of their "Big Ten" rivals, however, some means must be found of stopping Big Chief Mayes McLain, the Cherokee full back of Iowa.

One of the most irresistible attacks ever launched on a conference gridiron swept aside the vain resistance of Chicago at the midway Saturday, the Hawkeyes scoring two touchdowns in their first fourteen plays and then easing up, satisfied with a 13 to 0 victory. It was McLain, over six feet in height and 260 pounds in weight, who smashed the Maroon defense.

OHIO AMBITIOUS

Ohio State has title ambitions this year, following a victory over Northwestern, 10 to 0, on Saturday, but the Buckeyes won through alertness rather than sheer power, taking advantage of Purple fumbles.

Indiana, with little hope of placing high in the "Big Ten" race is gloating over Saturday's victory at Ann Arbor, for the Hoosiers not only defeated Michigan, 6 to 0, but scored upon the Wolverines for the first time in 28 years.

Illinois, which swept through Coe, 31 to 0, last week, plays its first conference game next Saturday against Indiana. The Illinois nursed high hopes of a "Big Ten" championship this season, seeming to overshadow their rivals before the first kick-off of fall. Now it is apparent that Minnesota and Iowa must be reckoned as extremely dangerous contenders.

PUMPKINS ARE ALWAYS CHIEF SHOW EXHIBIT

Golden Garden Product Was Basis of Annual Fall Celebration Here.

The chief display of the Pumpkin Show is that of the pumpkins, for it was really this display that brought about the show. In 1902, when the first Pumpkin Show was held, there were practically no displays, except those of the pumpkins.

The best prizes given that year were on the pumpkins, and then the prizes were not offered in money but in merchandise, each merchant interested (and these were just a few on W. Main-st.) would give as a premium some article of merchandise from their own stock. Later, other merchants joined in the display and formed the Circleville Pumpkin Show.

BREHMER IN CHARGE

R. L. Brehmer is in charge of this department, for the third year. The display will be on both sides of N. Court-st between Pinkney and High-sts. This exhibit, as well as the growth in the size of the pumpkins, has expanded to a very large size. There were over 900 entries in 1927, and in 1926 this was surpassed by 1021 entries. This year will probably see the 1000 mark despite early frosts.

The growers have learned how to scientifically feed them so as to make them grow to a very large size: some even tap the vine of the pumpkin and feed it milk to make it grow large.

Prizes in this department are probably the largest of any other display of the Pumpkin Show, the prize money totalling $172 50, the largest prize being $50.00.

Baxter Anderson and John Wells for the past few years have been in close competition, and they are always depended upon for a good display. Anderson won the prize last year with a larger variety of pumpkins.

FREAKS ON DISPLAY

Another feature of this department is that of the freak vegetable display. In 1927 this idea was inaugurated by Mr. Brehmer.

R. W. Wallace will be the judge of this department. Last year Mr. Wallace and W. E. Hanger, of Ohio State university were the judges.

Prizes are offered for the best display of pumpkins and squashes, largest pumpkin, largest squash, largest crook neck squash and for the most unusual freak pumpkin, squash or vegetable.

VEGETABLE DISPLAY TO BE ON MAIN-ST.

Many Entries Are Expected Under Direction of Fred Brunner.

The vegetable display this year will be on W. Main-st. commencing at Grand-Girard's alley, west to Wallace's bakery. Fred Brunner is in charge of this department and he expects a very good display of the different kinds and classes of vegetables.

In 1927 the number of entries reached approximately 150 and will probably go over the 175 mark this year. This is no doubt due to the fact that vegetables are more and more in demand and the farmers are turning their interests towards better and larger production.

The vegetable display has been in existence as part of the Pumpkin Show for over 10 years. The greater part of this display is composed of potatoes, chiefly, Early Ohio's, Cobblers, Carmans, Seneca Beauties, and New York Royals. Only one exhibit by the same party in any one class will be allowed.

FOREIGN DISPLAYS WILL BE NUMEROUS

Many Out-of-Town Exhibitors Will Show Their Products In City.

Many exhibitors from out of the county will have displays this year at the Pumpkin Show. James Swearingen, of Jackson-twp, who is chairman of the Fruit display, has had a number of inquiries from surrounding counties asking to display fruit. Although the non-residents and the professional exhibitors as well will be permitted to exhibit their wares at the show, they are not eligible to compete for the prizes. All displays that are entered for the prizes must be grown by the exhibitor.

The fruit display will be held on the north side of W. Main-st commencing at Hanley's Tea room, west to the first alley. This has always been a large and successful display in past years, having 176 entries in 1927. Last year however, there was an exceptionally large fruit crop, and this year it is about normal but a large display is expected.

Watermelons and strawberries were displayed at this exhibit last year and will be permitted to do so again this year. This department is not specializing in freak species, but this year a genuine cotton plant in full bloom grown in Pickaway-co. is promised.

R. W. Wallace, service manager of the Franklin-co. farm bureau, will be the judge of the fruit and vegetable displays. Mr. Wallace was one of the judges for the 1927 Pumpkin Show, and has the reputation as being a leader in his line of work.

Last year the exhibit was mostly composed of apples, peaches, pears, grapes, plums, and guineas.

Many attractive prizes are offered, ranging up to $5 for play.

Display Will Be Seen In K. of P. Lodge Rooms During Pumpkin Show.

Each year it seems that more and more people are growing beautiful flowers, and having real success with them. One way to boost along the Pumpkin Show is to bring flowers in for display at the flower show. The more flowers there are the more people this exhibit will attract, although many look forward to this exhibit alone.

Not many different flowers can be kept for display, so late in the month, and yet the dahlias, asters, and other fall flowers in baskets and bouquets, will be remembered by many as the prettiest sight in the Pumpkin Show.

The flowers this year will be shown in the K. of P. lodge room on N. Court-st. just opposite the New American hotel. Mrs. Noah Weaver is chairman of the display, and will be assisted by Mrs. James Moffitt.

In years gone by, the flower show has always been a success and if the frost has left any flowers in the garden and lawns, it is hoped that they will be brought in to help make the silver anniversary of the Pumpkin Show bigger and better.

The committee has asked that all exhibits be on hand by Thursday noon.

MELODRAMA OF MYSTERY

Jacquelin Logan is starred in "The Leopard Lady," a mystery melodrama which is the feature photoplay at the Grand theater Monday. The picture is replete with thrill scenes staged amid the colorful atmosphere of an Austrian circus. As a special attraction Monday and Tuesday, Tweedy Brothers, Pumpkin Show entertainers, will give a special program.

DRAMA OF YOUTH

Newly-perfected incandescence lighting equipment a revolutionary step in motion picture advancement, was used exclusively for the first time in the filming of "Our Dancing Daughters" which is now playing at the Metropolitan theater. In the ultra-modern picture of the drama of youth, Joan Crawford, Johnny Mack Brown, Dorothy Sebastian and Anita Page plays the leading roles. In the stellar supporting cast are Nils Asther, Kathryn Williams and Eddie Nugent.

NEW STAR AT CLIFTONA

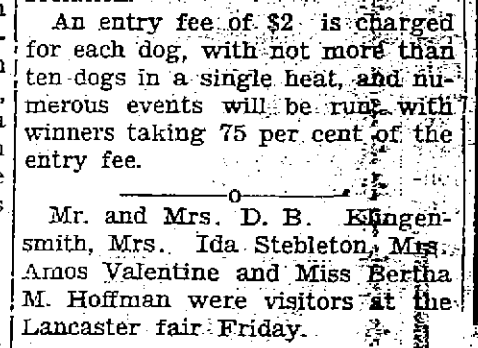

Charming, delightful, talented, Jeannette Loff, a recent De Mille screen discovery, who supported Rod La Roque so effectively in "Hold 'Em Yale!" has an excellent role in Leatrice Joy's new star picture for Pathe, "Man-Made Women," which will be on view at the Cliftona theater on Tuesday. H. E. Warner, John Boles and Seena Owen are featured members of an unusually brilliant cast. Miss Loff, who is rapidly rising to stellar heights, was born in Orofino, a lumber center in the Idaho mountains. Going to Hollywood, she played small bits in "Young April," "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and "The Collegians." She attracted

WASHINGTON PLANS COONHOUND TRIALS

The fourth annual coonhound trials of the south central Ohio Coon Hunters' association will be held near Washington C. H., Oct. 25, beginning at 10:30 a. m. The trials will be staged at Wilbur Collins' grove, eight miles south of Washington C. H., on the Buena Vista rd. This promises to be the biggest event of its kind in the country. It is being sponsored by the Fayette Co. Fish and Game Protective association. An entry fee of $2 is charged for each dog, with not more than ten dogs in a single heat, and numerous events will be run with winners taking 75 per cent of the entry fee.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kengen-smith, Mrs. Ida Stebleton, Mrs. Anos Valentine and Miss Bertha M. Hoffman were visitors at the Lancaster fair Friday.

LOANS UP TO $500

You don't have to be a wizard in business affairs to make a worth-while profit with borrowed money. A chance to double your money may pop up any time and it's just plain common sense to borrow, when you lack the cash, to invest in your opportunity.

One of the easiest ways to get a loan is through the City Loan plan. It isn't necessary to have influential friends to help you. You don't have to be a land owner nor a long time resident to qualify. In fact you can be as you are, and do as you like and always be welcome to City Loan service for your own personal gain. Your wife, mother, sister or brother can apply for you.

SOCIETY

GAY BIRTHDAY PARTY IN PICKAWAY-TWP.

One of the very prettiest late social functions for children, was the party Saturday afternoon which celebrated the ninth birthday anniversary of Eleanor Dresbach, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dresbach of Pickaway-twp. Mrs. Dresbach was the hostess, and was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Boggs, Mrs. E. O. Crites and Mrs. Ward Robinson. The hours from two to five passed all too quickly, as the guests were entertained by novel games and contests and by stories, all of which were in charge of Mrs. Robinson.

For the delicious refreshments of the afternoon, the guests were seated in the dining room at one large table and two small tables. In the center of the large table was a beautiful birthday cake covered with white frosting and lighted by nine pink birthday candles. Pink candles near the ends of the table and on the small tables were in crystal candlesticks. When the decorations and refreshments were still intact, Mr. Dresbach took some pictures of the dining room, filled with all the smiling guests. Also some group pictures were taken out of doors.

Those who enjoyed the lovely affair were, Betty Lou Nickerson, Norma Yyle, Mary Butler, Ann Vlerebome, Joyce Dresbach, Ruth Robinson, Marilyn Lutz, Virginia Dresbach, Eyer Dresbach, Maxine Dresbach, Marvina Pontious, Irene Pontious, Alma Rhodes, Roselyn Dresbach, Mary Crites, Dorothy Alkire, Erma Anderson, Rose Mary Boggs, Helen Mosely, Catherine Moore, Matilda Davis, Helen Shrader and the guest of honor, Eleanor Dresbach.

MISS WILSON IS HOSTESS

Mrs. Homer Gleadell and Mrs. H. P. McChord were the winners of bridge prizes Saturday afternoon when Miss Ethyl Wilson entertained a few friends to an informal bridge party. After the fifth round of bridge, Miss Wilson invited her guests to the dining room where the decorations were arranged in a scheme of blue. The crystal ware on the table was blue and pretty and unusual center decoration was a crystal bowl, heaped high with luscious fruit, with a great bunch of blue grapes standing out in color. Mrs. E. B. Wilson, mother of the hostess, assisted her in the dining room.

SUNDAY MARRIAGE IS ANNOUNCED

Miss Elizabeth Miller of Kingston, and Mr. Claude Brown of Circleville were united in marriage Sunday, Oct. 14, 1934, at Plum Grove, Greenup-co Ky. The Rev. William Hiles performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Buskard of Kingston accompanied the bride couple to Kentucky and were present at the wedding ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mariah Brown of Mingo. He is employed at the Sturim & Dillard Co. gravel washer on the Island-rd.

AT BOWERY BALL IN CHILICOTHE
Among the out-of-town guests Friday night at the "Bowery Ball" in Chillicothe, was Miss Miriam Ruggles of S. Court-st. The Chi Delta Chi sorority entertained with this ball, which was one of the most successful and delightful dances of the fall season. It was given in the Chillicothe K. of P. hall.

There was a very large attendance, most of those present having come in appropriate costumes, which were very effective against the decorations of the hall. Carroll's Southern Entertainers furnished peppy music for the dancing, which continued from 9 to 1 o'clock.

At one end of the hall, a mock cabaret had been arranged, and here refreshments were served throughout the evening. The tables were centered with candles of all shades.

DINNER CELEBRATES TWO BIRTHDAYS
Mrs. Curtis Peters of Columbus and Mr. H. M. Crites of S. Court-st. shared honors at a lovely dinner party at noon, at which Mrs. H. M. Crites was the gracious hostess. The occasion for this important affair was the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Peters and Mr. Crites, which was Tuesday, Oct. 9.

In the dining room where the guests were seated at one large table and four smaller tables, the outstanding color scheme was yellow. In the center of the table was a large birthday cake with twinkling birthday candles. Blue delphinium and rich yellow chrysanthemums had been chosen to bedeck the room, where a sumptuous birthday feast was served.

The Circleville guests were Mr. and Mrs. Meinhard Crites and daughter, Mary Virginia, while others present were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Peters and children and Miss Virginia Baughn, of Columbus. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters and children, Mrs. Frank Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peters and children of Lockbourne, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Baughn of Washington C. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reber of near Ashville, and the host and hostess.

Mr. Robert E. Hott, of Robtown spent Saturday in Circleville.

HIT BY GOLF BALL; PAINFULLY INJURED

Joseph Lynch, employed at the Barrere and Nickerson hardware store, is suffering a badly bruised nose the result of being hit by a golf ball on the third hole at the Country club, Sunday. Lynch was rendered unconscious when struck by the ball.

The ball was played by Albert Herrnstein, of Chillicothe. Dr. D. V. Courtright attended his injuries. It is not known whether the bridge of the nose was broken or not.

BROTHER-IN-LAW IS DEAD IN EAST

Mrs. Howard Jones, of Park-pl., received word Monday morning of the death Sunday, of her brother-in-law, the Rev. T. C. Chalmers Potter of Doylestown, Penn. He was the husband of her sister, Miss Lilly McMullen, a former resident of Circleville. His father was president of the Glendale school in Cincinnati.

Rev. Potter for years was minister of a Presbyterian church in Doylestown, but because of ill health in late years was forced to give up his work in the pulpit. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at Doylestown.

AUTO IS STOLEN

When G. P. Bard, of Chagrin Falls, went into the New American hotel Saturday to write a letter and register someone drove away his Maxwell coupe and never returned it, according to a report to the police. The car was painted blue and bore license 600,568.

A leather handbag and personal articles valued at about $35 were stolen from the garage of Rev. C. J. Troutman, E. Mound-st., Monday morning, according to a report received by the local police department.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued Monday to Raymond Mahley, 22, machine operator, Groveport and Helen Duvall, 21, Circleville. Rev. George Ashton, Columbus.

NUMEROUS PRIZES FOR INFANT SHOW

Every Participant In Baby Parade Will Receive Gift.

The Circleville Pumpkin Show would not be complete without the Baby parade, which is one of the features that is always looked forward to with the greatest interest. If sunny skies will only shine down on the youngest of the younger generation, everyone will turn out to see the loveliest specimens of babyhood, outdoing all the other displays and exhibits.

The Baby parade will take place Friday afternoon, Oct. 19, at 2 o'clock. All babies should be at the starting point at 1 o'clock so that they may be numbered and placed in the parade.

Pinkney-st. is to be the starting place for the parade, which will start there and proceed west to Scioto-st. south to Main-st. east on Main-st. to Court-st. and south on Court-st. to Franklin-st. Here the parade will counter march on Court-st. to Pinkney-st. where the judging will take place immediately after the parade. In case of rain, judging will be done in the Memorial hall or the C. A. C. club rooms. The judges will be selected the day of the parade from among out-of-town visitors.

Mrs. Mary G. Morris has again been selected as chairman for the parade. She will be assisted by Mrs. H. B. Given and Mrs. H. R. Reigel.

The following is the list of classes in which prizes will be awarded, but each child entered will receive a gift. All entries must take part in the parade to be eligible for a prize.

Class A—Prettiest white baby under one year of age; Class B—Prettiest colored baby under one year of age; Class C—Prettiest white baby between one and two years of age; Class D—Prettiest colored baby between one and two years of age; Class E—Prettiest white baby between two and three years of age; Class F—Prettiest colored baby between two and three years of age; Class G—Prettiest white twins under four years of age; Class H—Prettiest colored twins under 4 years of age; Class I—Best play outfit with little girl in charge. Open to both white and colored. If six or more entries are received from little colored girls they will be given a separate class and same prizes given; Class J—Best novelty outfit with child in charge. Open to both white and colored.

If six or more entries are received from colored children a separate class will be made and the same prize given; Class K—Prettiest and most artistic decorated baby buggy. Buggy only to be considered in this class.

RATE WAR IN COURT

Although reduced freight rates on fertilizer became effective on October 1, the four-year fight of farmers of this section of the country to secure them has gone to the courts. This is the word received this week by the Pickaway County Farm Bureau from headquarters of the Ohio Farm Bureau which brought the original complaint which resulted in the rate reduction. Railroads are now attempting to get an injunction against the lower freight rates on fertilizer, end of October.

which were recently ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Hearing on their request will be held in the United States district court in Chicago before the

The rate reduction amounts to approximately a dollar a ton on all fertilizer moving in Ohio. It was ordered by the commission after a long period of hearings started by the Ohio Farm Bureau and later joined by fertilizer manufacturers. The lower rates went into effect on a temporary basis on October 5, and were ordered permanently to start Dec. 5.

FINE ORCHESTRA IS SECURED FOR SHOW

Charles La Place and Band of Musicians To Play at C.
A. C. Rooms.

Charles La Place and his Royal Club orchestra have been engaged to furnish the music at the Circleville Athletic club during the Pumpkin Show. This orchestra comes to Circleville from such engagements as those at "The Breakers" at Geneva on the Lake, "Danceland" at Buffalo, "Arcadia Ballroom" at Baltimore, and the "Casino" at Providence, R. I. They also played at the Food Show in Columbus last week.

Ben Gordan, who procured this orchestra, believed that Circleville should have a chance this Pumpkin Show to hear some real music and to have a wonderful place to dance. Never before has such a popular orchestra played in Circleville at this time. It is one of the most versatile bands in the country and has been the biggest attraction in every city in which they played in Central Ohio.

The orchestra is the best that could be secured for dance lovers in Circleville. Art Komblume, drummer, who plays 10 different instruments, Elden Brown whose silvery tones are well known and always welcome with his listeners, John Krizer, pianist, and Kenny Riggs who plays everything in the band, all will be featured.

Charles La Place, the director of this fine organization, is known in the musical world as a leader with a million friends. His personality and his outstanding ability has earned for him this reputation.

The roster of the orchestra includes Charles La Place, John Krizer, Elden Brown, Ted Carpenter, John Heenan, Wellington Findley, Art Komblume, Kenny Driggs, Judd Chase, Sandy Williams and Guy Palmer.

LARGER DISPLAY OF CORN IS INDICATED

Boys' and Girls' Clubs Will Have Numerous Entries
In Grain Show.

The corn display at the Pumpkin Show will be under the supervision of I. S. Carpenter, and will be held on W. Main-st. on the north side of the street in front of the May Tag Washing Machine Co. store.

Last year there were 226 entries in this display and more are expected for this year. The boys' Corn club will probably have more than 10 entries in this year's display.

Dr. H. L. Borst, the judge, is connected with the crop department of Ohio State university. Dr. Borst is a graduate of Ohio State and is an accepted authority on the growing of corn. He has judged corn for the largest fairs all over the state.

On the premium list, it will be noticed that it calls for 1927 product. This is an error, and should read 1928 crop as only this year's crop is eligible for premiums.

POULTRY EXHIBIT UNUSUALLY LARGE

Rabbits will Be Included In Display—Bryce Briggs
In Charge.

The poultry display at the Pumpkin Show will be under the able direction of County Auditor Bryce Briggs this year. Lee Shanner had charge of this department last year.

The display will be on S. Court-st. directly in front of the Court House, and will include rabbits as well as poultry. This has always been one of the big features of the Pumpkin Show because nearly everyone living on the farm rears chickens and this is an educational benefit to those rearing them because it will explain and show the most profitable means by which poultry should be reared.

This display is growing so rapidly that it was necessary to purchase additional coops to care for the increase in the number of entries. There were 140 entries last year and they are expected to reach the 175 mark this year, according to the large number of inquiries coming in from all parts of the county.

The judging will be done by comparison and the judge selected this year is Professor E. L. Tarkenton, head of the poultry department at Ohio State university. Most of the entries consist of the following breeds: Plymouth Rocks, Leghorns, Buff Rocks, Brown Leghorns and a number of breeds of the fancier and show types. The Boys' and Girls' clubs will exhibit nine pens of poultry in the display this year.

THE CIRCLEVILLE COCA-COLA BOTTLING WORKS

FRANK A. LYNCH, Proprietor

To the Farmers of this Community

The business and professional interests of Circleville wish to express their appreciation of your service to this community.

We are conscious of the importance of your work and efforts to help us make Circleville a bigger and better town. Without you, our enterprising community could not hope to prosper.

In return, we assure you our hearty co-operation and sincere desire to provide every possible advantage for you and yours.

We pledge to maintain high educational standards and facilities in our schools, that your children may receive the kind of education you want them to have.

Our churches welcome your participation in their services and offer the spiritual comfort and guidance so necessary in the pursuit of happiness.

Our merchants carry a full variety of good merchandise at fair prices. The advantage of seeing what you buy and dealing with people of established local reputation should mean much to you. Besides, a part of every dollar you spend here goes to provide direct benefits for you and your family.

Your continued patronage and loyalty to Circleville helps the town toward greater civic and commercial accomplishment. And that means increased benefits for you and those near and dear to you.

We, the undersigned, Believers in Circleville, heartily endorse the above:

PICKAWAY GETS FEEDER CATTLE
Shading off of prices of medium good cattle is also expected to increase the number which will be d in Ohio lots this winter, says L. Evans of Columbus, who is recting the distribution of the cooperatively purchased stock. Cost of such cattle has gone down as much as $1.25 a hundred since the middle of August, he reports, although choice cattle have remained steady at a high level. Putnam, Pickaway and Wood counties have received the most shipments of this imported feeder stock to date, Evans reports.

FANCY WORK EXHIBITS ARE INTERESTING

Women Vie With Each Other In Showing Their Skill With Needle-Thread.

An exhibit that always has attracted a lion's share during the Circleville Pumpkin show is that of the fancy work department. Here it is that the women have a most excellent opportunity to show their skill with the needle, and to show their individual artistic taste in making decorative articles for the home.

There is no limit to the variety of needlework that is to be displayed. All kinds of work wanted from the well known crocheting, applique, hemstitching, embroidery work to the latest quilting and needlepoint. Everything that is hand-made will be gladly accepted for the exhibit. Former entries are not eligible for prizes.

IN PYTHIAN CASTLE

The location chosen this year for the fancy work exhibit is the lodge room on third floor of the Pythian castle. Those in charge are asking that all exhibits be on hand by Wednesday night. This is necessary because the arrangement of the display takes a great deal of time and hard work. There may be some who cannot get into town on Wednesday afternoon and night, and these articles will be taken care of up to Thursday noon.

Mrs. E. S. Stephens and Mrs. H. L. Valentine are in charge of this department. They will be assisted by Mrs. F. H. Palm, Mrs. Robert Bates, Mrs. O. F. Heffner and Mrs. E. L. Sullivan. This committee has always been very successful with their department and will appreciate all the co-operation that has been shown in the years past.

PRIZES OFFERED

Prizes will be awarded the best exhibits of the following: Best pair hand made curtains, best quilted old quilt, prettiest new quilt, best appliqued bed spread, best embroidered bed spread, best hand-made sheet and pillow case set, best pair hand-made pillow cases, best hand-made luncheon set, best hand-made table cover, best library scarf, best hand-made pillow, best three-piece buffet set, best two-piece French and eyelet embroidery, best two-piece colored embroidery, best hand-made vanity set, best hand-made apron, best six hand-made handkerchiefs, best hand-made gown, best hand painted table cover, best hand painted scarf, best hand painted pillow, best six hand painted handkerchiefs.

Girls work under 18 years: Best piece of hand sewing; best hand-made apron; best hand made towel.

DELCO-LIGHT WILL HAVE BIG EXHIBIT

Electric Illumination and Residence Water Systems To Be Demonstrated.

One of the most interesting displays at the Pumpkin Show fair will be the exhibit of Delco-Light farm electric plants and D-L electric residence water systems, according to W. B. Prinz, local Delco-Light dealer.

"Large numbers of the more el. girls work under 12 years: best piece of hand sewing and best hand made towel.

than 300,000 Delco-Light users have been convinced of the economy and practical value of Delco-Light and D-L products by seeing them demonstrated at fairs," says Mr. Prinz.

"With Delco-Light plants and D-L water systems in operation at our booth at the fair, visitors will be able to see just how these sturdy dependable appliances are bringing happiness and comfort to so many farm homes, while saving money for their owners."

The Delco-Light, a subsidiary of General Motors, was the pioneer manufacturer of farm electric plants. More Delco-Light plants are in use than all other makes combined, according to the local dealer.

Visitors to the Delco-Light display at the fair are sure of an interesting and enjoyable demonstration of electricity on the farm.

Thomas Krinn, director of the amusement committee for the Pumpkin Show this year, announces the complete list of free acts, bands and rides for the show.

The free acts and the times they will be held are as follows:

Bee Kyle, high diver, will be on the corner of Court and High-sts. Her acts will be at 3 and 8 o'clock.

Madame Bernard will present a trained animal act at Main and Scioto-sts at 2 and 7 p. m. daily. The act includes ponies, dogs and a black bear.

"SLIDE FOR LIFE"

Probably the greatest act will be a "Slide for Life" from the top of the city building to a platform in front of the treasurer's office. The troupe is known as the Seldons. The act will be presented at 5 and 10 p. m.

The Steiner Bros. horizontal bar act will be given at Main and Pickaway-sts, at 4 and 9 p. m.

Tweedy Bros., with their old time music, will be at the Pumpkin Show with their washboard, bottles and other musical contrivances. They will probably be on W. Main-st, and will give four acts daily. The acts will be at 2:30, 3:30, 7:30 and 8:30 p. m. These brothers are well known as they have played here before and were seen recently by many in Fox Movietone News.

STUNT FLYING

F. E. Davis will do airplane stunt flying over the city at 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. An airplane will also be on display in the auto show. The plane is known as the monocoupe.

Charley Wright's famous colored quartet will wander through the Pumpkin Show, and give impromptu concerts.

The bands for the show are announced as follows: Thursday, the Lancaster Library band, Carbone's band and Immell's band.

Friday, the Adelphi E. of P. band, Immell's band and the Carbone band.

Saturday, Laureville community band, Immell's band and the Carbone band.

Otto Ehring will be on hand for the show with two merry-go-rounds, two ferris wheels, whip, merry-mix-up and a kiddy airplane.

The exact locations of these rides have not been announced.

RECORD DISPLAY OF SWINE IS EXPECTED

Market Prices of Various Grades of Hogs Will Be Shown Daily.

The swine display is expected to be one of the largest ever seen at the Pumpkin Show due to the fact that the farmers are interested more and more every year in the scientific breeding and raising of stock. This is brought about because the farmers depend upon this source as an income, the different crops being so uncertain. It is with this view the farmers are turning to the best ways of breeding and raising stock to have a proper product for the market and one that will net them the most returns.

CLOTHES IDEAS FROM ABROAD

By Mae Martin

Last fall when I was in France, I admired the dress which the daughter of our hostess was wearing, and she confessed it was three years old, originally rose beige, now dyed a rich, deep shade of red. The French are eternally surprising you with thrifty little tricks like that—tricks which it pays to imitate.

Most of us have dresses, which if allowed to remain their original color, are discarded or seldom worn. Red-dyed, they become favorites again.

Just get a package or two of true, fadeless Diamond Dyes, and try your hand at tinting or dyeing. You'll be amazed to see how easy it is to use Diamond Dyes. They never disappoint you. The "know-how" is in the eyes. They are real dyes like those used when the cloth was made. They never give things that soiled look, like makeshift, inferior dyes. The more than sixty colors you can get from them include everything that's fashionable.

My new 64 page illustrated book, "Color Craft," gives hundreds of money-saving hints for renewing clothes and draperies. It's FREE. Write for it NOW to Mae Martin, Home Service Dept., Diamond Dyes, Vermont.

A new feature will be introduced at the swine display this year. A few pens of differently graded hogs will have the market quotations of the particular day displayed on each pen. This is done to show the farmer and all interested, just what grade the packers demand and what each of the grades are bringing on the market. This feature will be three days of the Pumpkin Show, namely: Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The entire swine display will be under a large tent that is provided by this department, and the best of protection will be afforded the swine. It will be on E. High-st. back of one of the free acts.

In addition to the special feature mentioned above, the boys' and girls' Pig clubs will exhibit 19 pigs for market, and 15 gilts for breeding purposes. In the open classes, the standard classification is open to all breeders of swine and exhibitors of hogs throughout the country. In previous years there have been on display more of the following breeds: Poland China, Durocs, Chester Whites, Spotted Poland China and Hampshires.

Warren M. McVey of Highland, Ohio, will be the judge of this department. He is representing Ohio State university at different fairs throughout the state. Mr. McVey was the judge at the Lancaster fair last week, and is reputed to be one of the best in this state.

The ideal condition in dairying has been reached, according to Dr. A. F. Woods, director of scientific work on the U. S. Department of Agriculture. For the supply is only slightly ahead of the demand.

BUTTER, IN FANCY DESIGNS, ATTRACT

Many Wholesome and Appetizing Entries Expected By Barrere & Nickerson

Butter, printed in fancy designs, always attracts the eyes of the crowds at the Pumpkin Show. With flowers, acorns, birds and many other designs molded in the prints, the city folks long for a few days in the country.

All entries must be country made butter and will be judged by the quality only and the most appropriate design.

The butter display is under the direction of Elgar Barrere and Glen Nickerson of the Barrere and Nickerson Hardware Co. The display will be in front of their store on W. Main-st.

Last year two cases were filled with the shortening. Prizes this year are as follows: Best roll of butter (country made), quality only to count; first, $3.00; second, $2.00; third, $1.00; fourth, 50c; most appropriate design: first, $2.00; second, $1.00 and third, 50c.

Garage Floor
A layer of clondox six inches thick makes a very satisfactory floor for the home garage. The clondox should be thoroughly stamped down, a hose being used to wash them down during the operation. The floor absorbs grease, oil and gasoline that may leak out of the mechanism and it is, moreover, practically dustless.

speaking of telephones

Do you remember the first time you talked over a telephone? It was an uncanny experience. You were afraid of the thing and dodged when a faint crackling noise came over the line.

You don't understand the telephone any better now than you did then, but recognize its usefulness.

Take the telephone out of Circville today and business would come to a practical standstill. Social activities would be paralyzed. We would feel helpless and isolated.

About the only time a person thinks of the service of a telephone is when central inadvertently gives them the wrong number. Then they complain.

We are ever mindful of the fact that our subscribers should at all times be given prompt and intelligent service whenever they have occasion to put in a call.

Our operators are competently trained to give this service and we greatly appreciate having our subscribers make suggestions how we can improve our service to them.
